California Department of Education School Accountability Report Card Reported Using Data from the 2015-16 School Year

By February 1 of each year, every school in California is required by state law to publish a School Accountability Report Card (SARC). The SARC contains information about the condition and performance of each California public school. Under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) all local educational agencies (LEAs) are required to prepare a Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP), which describes how they intend to meet annual school-specific goals for all pupils, with specific activities to address state and local priorities. Additionally, data reported in an LCAP is to be consistent with data reported in the SARC.

- For more information about SARC requirements, see the California Department of Education (CDE) SARC Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/sa/>.
- For more information about the LCFF or LCAP, see the CDE LCFF Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/fq/aa/lc/>.
- For additional information about the school, parents/guardians, and community members should contact the school principal or the district office.

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest Web page that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district and the county. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g., test data, enrollment, high school graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions may include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

About Our School

Public Policy Charter School (PPCS) welcomes all students to its small, safe and dynamic community. The school staff (teachers, student support staff and administrative staff) engage diligently in providing an environment where students feel nurtured, as they engage in active learning.

We aim to educate the Whole Child.

As a Social Justice School, PPCS creates scholars who learn to think critically, and deconstruct the world around them. They are encouraged to find solutions for the issues of the 21st century and use Restorative Justice techniques when engaged in conflict resolution.

Embedded in the school's instructional program is the understanding that differentiated instruction is a necessity. The teachers meet and collaborate to discuss individual students and strategies to ensure the success of each and everyone of our students.

Your child will be safe, nurtured and challenged to reach great heights at Public Policy Charter School.

We welcome all families to join us and add to the tapestry that is Public Policy Charter School.

Thanks,

Sonali Tucker Ed.D.

School Description and Mission Statement (School Year 2016-17)

Public Policy Charter School (PPCS) is a grades 5-8 Middle School serving students in the central Los Angeles area. Consistent with statistics from the California Department of Education on local public schools, (<http://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/>), 93-98% of PPCS's students qualify for free/reduced lunch. In addition, the school serves a sizable English Language population, 63% (inclusive of RFEPs) of the student body, and a Special Education population of a little over 16%.

The Mission of PPCS is to provide learners with a safe, supportive, and dynamic learning environment that delivers a rigorous and engaging, college-preparatory curriculum. Through the study of public policy, our learners will be equipped with the knowledge, skills, and fortitude to advocate for themselves and their community through leadership and action.

The Vision of PPCS is that its alumni will earn college degrees in their chosen field of study, and advance to fulfilling careers where they promote economic development, social justice, and cross-border tolerance to impact public policy in a manner that benefits society.

The public policy mission fulfills the need to develop student leaders with the confidence, experience, and skills, to positively impact their communities through service learning projects. By the time students enter 8th grade, they will have learned about public policy history and leaders through their coursework. Furthermore, students will experience authentic learning tasks through project-based learning. Students will engage in civics education and apply their knowledge of Civics Literacy to a service-learning project that positively impacts their community as an 8th grade culminating event. Students will be exposed to the different aspects and arenas for public policy, in all fields, and work with community mentors to gain outside of the classroom learning experiences. The school will enter into partnerships with community organizations that impact public policy in Los Angeles.

Since research supports that Project-Based Learning (PBL) is an effective and engaging way for students to learn and make meaningful connections across content areas the school implements PBL as a means by which the curriculum is delivered to students. In order to be college and career ready, students are required to apply knowledge in a cognitively demanding way. Through PBL, learners gain deeper comprehension within the content, and learn to collaborate, think critically, communicate effectively both orally and through writing, and find creative solutions to problems. PBL directly aligns to Common Core Standards and the Smarter Balanced Assessment, with a focus on real-world applications and development of 21st century competencies that integrate technology and multi-media.

The model provided by the Buck Institute for Project Based Learning will be utilized for professional development for teachers.

Critical literacy involves learners as active participants in the reading process through the analysis of the author's purpose.

Critical literacy applies to both expository and narrative text. Our students will learn to use their power as readers to question, reflect, and present counter-arguments. Critical literacy challenges readers to use their knowledge to take action.

Intensive focus on reading instruction is necessary to increase students' lexile levels and promote reading proficiency. Since the school will serve a sizable population of English Learners, vocabulary development will be a critical area of reading instruction. Professional development for teachers will emphasize explicit strategies for reading instruction to allow for students to be enthusiastic and competent readers, and to engage in critical literacy across disciplines.

PPCS strives to be a model for effective teaching and learning. We continue to promote exemplary teaching through a comprehensive professional development program aimed at providing teachers with various levels of experience with research based strategies to meet the academic and socio-emotional needs of middle grade learners. We will partner with local colleges and universities to hire the most qualified teachers. Professional development will be conducted by school leadership based on what the data reveals as areas of need. We commit to implementing and refining instructional approaches that advance achievement for our students. Coaching for teachers will be embedded in our effective teaching model.

Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics (STEAM): In alignment with our public policy focus, the STEM curriculum will be embedded in our instructional program, to include Art and Design (from STEM to STEAM).

PPCS will develop and implement a rigorous academic program where students apply the components of STEAM in all disciplines. Our students will build connections between their school, home, and community that will enable them to flourish in higher academic settings and eventually become policy leaders in various fields.

The school strives to maintain the 8 State Priorities collapsed into 3 areas Conditions of Learning, Pupil Outcomes and Engagement. These priorities are embedded through out the school's operations and instruction and are underscored among the school's goals. Student Success is the overarching goal of PPCS.

B. Pupil Outcomes

State Priority: Pupil Achievement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Pupil Achievement (Priority 4):

- Statewide assessments (i.e., California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress [CAASPP] System, which includes the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments for students in the general education population and the California Alternate Assessments [CAAs] for English language arts/literacy [ELA] and mathematics given in grades three through eight and grade eleven. The CAAs have replaced the California Alternate Performance Assessment [CAPA] for ELA and mathematics, which were eliminated in 2015. Only eligible students may participate in the administration of the CAAs. CAA items are aligned with alternate achievement standards, which are linked with the Common Core State Standards [CCSS] for students with significant cognitive disabilities); and
- The percentage of students who have successfully completed courses that satisfy the requirements for entrance to the University of California and the California State University, or career technical education sequences or programs of study.

Note: Mathematics test results include the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment and the CAA. The "Percent Met or Exceeded" is calculated by taking the total number of students who met or exceeded the standard on the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment plus the total number of students who met the standard on the CAAs divided by the total number of students who participated in both assessments.

Double dashes (--) appear in the table when the number of students is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy.

Note: The number of students tested includes all students who participated in the test whether they received a score or not; however, the number of students tested is not the number that was used to calculate the achievement level percentages. The achievement level percentages are calculated using only students who received scores.

School Safety Plan (School Year 2016-17)

The Safe School Plan was completed by the School Safety Committee on January 15th 2016, and a meeting for public input was held on February 16th 2016. Since a few positions on the School Safety Committee need to be filled (due to attrition) the current members of the committee will meet in the 1st week of February to add members and to hold a public meeting for further input from the school community (if necessary). The current version of the Safe School Plan is available on the school's website www.publicpolicycharterschool.org. Once the plan has been updated, the more current version will be uploaded on to the website.

School Safety Committee Mission

Public Policy Charter School schools are committed to providing safe and positive learning environments for our students. PPCS believes safety is central to the daily operation of productive schools. In order to be and do their best, PPCS schools will provide safe and healthy school communities to our students that are free from disruptive behavior and discipline problems that interrupt learning. PPCS will provide annual staff trainings on policies and expectations regarding the practices necessary to maintain the security of the campuses, responding appropriately to emergencies, increasing the safety and protection of students and staff, and creating a safe and orderly environment.

"Safe schools allow students to concentrate on learning, teachers to focus on teaching, and parents to be confident their children are in a secure, peaceful environment."

National Resource Center for Safe Schools

The School's Comprehensive Safe Schools Plan includes the following items:

Appropriate Programs and Strategies that provide School Safety;

Professional Development

The school has 5 days of Professional Development at the start of the Academic year, 3 days before Thanksgiving, 3 days before students return from Winter-Break and one day after the last day of school. Further, each Wednesday (the school's short day) the teachers meet for PD from 1:30-3:30.

Teachers use student achievement data to determine the need for PD in certain subject areas, strategies, tools and techniques.

Workshops, In-house training afterschool are all methods by which PD is delivered at Public Policy Charter School.

Further, teachers are supported through peer coaching, teacher-principal meetings, and in-class coaching.
