

Final Report for WCEA Visit

School Name: Cristo Rey Sacramento

Date of Visit: November 27-30, 2016

Team Members:

- Mr. Ian Farr, Counselor,
Jesuit High School, Carmichael, CA
- Ms. Stephanie Blumenson, Director of Accreditation
Cristo Rey San Jose Jesuit High School
- Ms. Donna Smith, Elementary Commissioner
Diocese of Fresno
- Mr. John Davis, Teacher, Grades 9-12
Mercy High School, Red Bluff
- Ms. Sally Todd, Chairperson, Assoc. Superintendent
Diocese of Orange

Principle A: Authenticity of the School's Catholic Identity

Commendably

- Very strong Catholic Identity (rooted in the values and charisms of Society of Jesus, Sisters of Mercy, and Sisters of Notre Dame)
- Committed administration, faculty, staff, and board (provide opportunities for students to develop holistically with life-changing opportunities)
- Cornerstone: Prayer and Service
- Signs and Sacramentals

Principle B: Organizational Efficacy of the School

Sufficiently

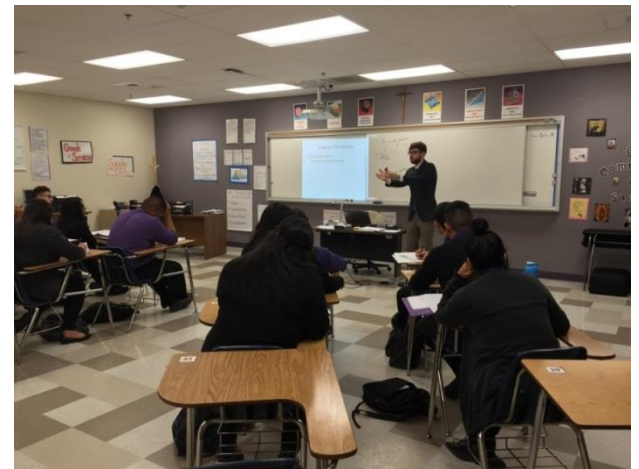

- Strong organizational structure supported by Board of Directors and Administrative structure
- Overall organizational structure of the school remains supportive of religious and educational objectives
- Organizational structure has become stronger since last accreditation and is on track for growth

Principle C: Excellence of the Teaching and Learning

Sufficiently

- Implementation of ISOs in curriculum and instruction; as well as into total culture of the school.
- High access to technology.
- Variety of assessments are utilized.
- Strong culture of collaboration and sharing of resources, materials, and best practices.
- Successful Work-Study Program.

Principle D: Vitality of Student Support

Commendably

- Students feel thoroughly supported
 - +In academics
 - +Socio-emotionally by counseling
 - +In graduation and post graduation pursuits
- There is an environment of safety and respect
- Students have many ways to get involved (clubs and sports)
- Counselors, teachers, and staff are accessible to students
- Students and parents love Cristo Rey Sacramento

Principle E: Responsible Management of Material Resources

Commendably

- Substantially improved position financially from previous accreditation.
- Is on a positive trajectory
- Areas of growth for future

Principle F: Commitment to Improvement

Commendably

School has shown diligent effort in addressing action items from previous visit.

School is deeply committed to growth and development in moving the school forward.

Principle G: Integrity of the Self Study Process

- Commendably
- Appropriate shareholder involvement was solicited and received
- Cristo Rey High School Sacramento demonstrated integrity throughout the entire Self Study Process.
- School's Educational Improvement Plan was thorough in its undertaking and was a justified outcome of an extensive evaluation

Thank You!

