Awards Night

“Adams takes many opportunities to award students for their achievement academically, athletically, and socially. In the spring, the school partners with PTSA to honor students who have maintained a 3.5 GPA at an Academic Awards Night. Teachers select one student from each of their classes whom they honor at an Awards Night. Positive attendance awards are given at the end of the year and positive attendance parties are held each semester.”(Adams Website: School Profile)

After a long year of homework and tests, Awards Night is the night where you forget about all the bad and feel proud of yourself. It’s a night to remember. To be invited to Awards Night is a big sense of accomplishment. Awards Night was started years ago to recognize the hard working students and teachers at Adams. There is nothing more satisfying than proving that your hard work pays off. Congratulations to all students of Adams Middle School for working hard throughout the school year!

Dear Adam

Dear Adam,

My friends and I had our backpacks by the bike area. I was playing soccer and suddenly my friend who was not playing soccer came over and told me that someone put our backpacks to the side. They were all messed up. When I asked who it was she said it was an aide. I thought I would tell you. Thank you for listening to my problem.

P.S. If you could do anything about it that would be nice.

- Confused

Dear Confused,

We understand your worries but the aides move backpacks that are in the wrong area all the time. As long as none of your stuff was broken or stolen, this isn't something to stress over. Next time put your backpacks along the fence by the kickball field where they are supposed to be and it probably won't happen again.

-You might have to deal with a few things in the beginning of the month-it happens. Instead of spending a lot of time resenting or reacting, just get dealing- as fast and as effectively as you can. You'll be glad you did! Especially once you see the silver lining. It's really true that obstacles help you understand yourself and your wishes, needs and desires more completely. Setting off on an exploration of your inner self could be the greatest adventure of your life, as you'll see later on in the month. All of the internal discovery should lead to some amazing findings!

Leo: July 23- August 22

-What's your first and foremost summer time resolution on the 1st? Why, to get in super great physical shape. The first thing to do this month is to dive on in- to the pool or some other fun activity. Whatever it is, make sure you're doing it well and super-duper regularly. Work up a sweat! Make the most of this! Romance is the name of the game, and you're playing with a really great partner. Take advantage of that opportunity! If someone you just met is boring you to tears, do your best to put a smile on your face.
