Note: Scholarship funds are limited, so we need your honest input in order to recruit the students and families that best fit our mission statement. Your input will not be shared with the family and will only be viewed by the Scholarship Committee and the personnel in the Finance Department who are preparing the application packet for review. Please note that there are a few Named Scholarships available for grand/children of NYC current, retired or deceased firefighters. If there are not enough eligible firefighters we will award the firefighter scholarship to a child of a first responder or current, retired or deceased active military personnel.
