Allyson Tong: Clubs Day went pretty well last week, with 55 clubs participating and Rock Band Club & Korean Culture Club performing. The process in chartering new clubs is still ongoing, and Executive Council will begin to discuss these new clubs throughout the week. There are about 40 new club applications to get through, and I am hoping we can vote on which to charter as soon as possible.

Celine Lee and Emily Quach: Around 250 people attended DIY Potato Corners. This number includes a majority of seniors and also students from various grades. We are currently planning out the details for our Spam Musubi Party on October 28th. We are also having Krispy Kreme Pre Sale orders from this week until next week!

Michelle Hu: SCHC will be holding its first meeting on Wednesday, October 5th. Its first project of the year is hosting a tour of AHS for a 50th reunion on Saturday, October 22nd.
