INFORMATION REGARDING SECTION 504 OF THE REHABILITATION ACT OF 1973

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 prohibits discrimination against persons with a handicap in any program receiving federal financial assistance. The Act defines a person with a handicap as anyone who has a mental or physical impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activity (major life activities include activities such as caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working); has a record of such an impairment, or is regarded as having such an impairment.

In order to fulfill its obligation under Section 504, the Allen Park Public Schools recognizes a responsibility to avoid discrimination in policies and practices regarding its personnel and students. No discrimination against any person with a handicap will knowingly be permitted in any of the programs and practices in the school system.

The school district has specific responsibilities under the Act, which include the responsibility to identify, evaluate, and if the child is determined to be eligible under Section 504, to afford access to appropriate educational services.

If the parent or guardian disagrees with the determination made by the professional staff of the school district, he/she has a right to a hearing with an impartial hearing officer. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) also specifies rights related to educational records. This act gives the parent or guardian the right to: Inspect and review his/her child's educational records; Make copies of these records; Receive a list of all individuals having access to those records; Ask for an explanation of any item in the records; Ask for an amendment to any report on the grounds that it is inaccurate, misleading, or violates the child's rights; A hearing on the issue if the school refuses to make the amendment. If there are questions, contact Mr. Mark Lowe, Allen Park Middle School Principal and 504 Coordinator for the Allen Park Public Schools at (313) 827-2200.
