Counselors and Development invites you to attend*

~~ John Rosemond ~~

Understanding Parenting with Love and Leadership

Topics include:

- An explanation for the rise in student behavior problems based on trends in parenting philosophy that have occurred over the past fifty years.
- An explanation of the concurrent increase in problems getting parents to accept that their children misbehave and follow through appropriately at home.
- The essence of effective discipline is not proper use of behavior-modification based management strategies, but a proper attitude, broken down into its component parts.
- Anecdotal examples of effective management of behavior issues.
