

R4240 – Employee Training

A. Programs of Job Skills Improvement

1. The purpose of job skills improvement programs is to increase the knowledge, proficiency, ability, and skills of support staff employees.
2. Training programs will be structured to meet the immediate needs of the district as well as the personal goals of the employees.
3. Training programs for support staff members shall be developed by the Superintendent or his/her designee for implementation by an individual assigned by the Superintendent.

B. Determination of Training Needs

1. Principals and supervisors shall annually inventory the training needs of the employees under their supervision by determining whether:
 - a. Assignments are being carried out in a systematic and effective manner,
 - b. Policies of the Board and regulations of the district are being properly implemented,
 - c. Employee evaluations indicate a need for improvement,
 - d. Excessive waste or damage is occurring or safety methods are not being followed,
 - e. Employees have an opportunity to express their views on the manner in which assignments are performed, and
 - f. Career advancement training opportunities are available to employees.
2. The Superintendent or his/her designee shall prepare a report of the training needs that shows:
 - a. Identified needs determined from the inventory;
 - b. Current programs that meet identified needs and areas in which current programs do not meet identified needs;
 - c. Recommendations for on-the-job training procedures in areas in which a need is identified and no current program is available, and

d. Recommendations for the use of off-the-job training programs known to meet district needs.

C. On-the-Job Training

1. On-the-job training is that given to employees while they are at their assigned work stations.
2. On-the-job training shall be directed primarily to new employees and those whose job responsibilities have been changed.
3. On-the-job training programs shall be developed by Superintendent or his/her designee; the assistance of experts is encouraged with approval of the Superintendent or his/her designee.
4. Scheduling of training on the job will be the responsibility of the Superintendent or his/her designee.
5. The outcome of training on the job should be a higher level of performance by each affected employee.

D. Off-the-Job Training

1. Off-the-job training is that attended by employees during or after their regular job assignments but away from their assigned work stations.
2. Training off-the-job should generally be directed to those employees who have specialized workplace needs.
3. Suitable training programs shall be identified for support staff employees by the Superintendent or his/her designee, with approval of costs by the Superintendent.
4. Scheduling of off-the-job training will be the responsibility of the Superintendent or his/her designee.
5. Allowable fees for attendance at off-the-job training programs may be reimbursed upon the submission of an expense voucher to the School Business

REGULATION

Administrator/Board Secretary, subject to the terms of any relevant and current negotiated agreement.

6. Employees who are recompensed for costs of off-the-job training are expected to continue in their employment for at least one year. Prorata reimbursement will be required for shorter periods of employment.

E. Training Effectiveness

1. Employees assigned to training off-the-job shall complete a district form designed to evaluate the effectiveness of the program.

2. The Superintendent or his/her designee shall review the performance of each employee assigned training either on or off the job thirty to forty-five days following the completion of the program.

3. The Superintendent or his/her designee shall report on the effectiveness and cost of the training programs. He/She shall recommend continuation and discontinuance of programs as appropriate.
