

UNIVERSITIES ACCEPTING IB CREDIT

This is a partial listing of universities accepting IB credit and their admissions policies. If the university you are applying to is not listed here, or if you still require further information about IB credits, we recommend you contact your university's Office of Admissions directly.

Adelphi University: Advanced standing credit awarded to students who achieve 4 or better on higher level examinations. Credits will be determined on an individual basis based upon the examination scores. Adelphi recognizes the challenges and rigor of the IB curriculum and welcomes students who have participated in this program.

Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences: The rigor of the International Baccalaureate Diploma Program is recognized and up to six course credits are granted for superior performance on the Higher Level examinations, provided that the exams cover fields of study represented by the College's academic offerings. Students who have completed the IB curriculum ordinarily will be granted, on matriculation at ACP, one course credit for each score of 6 or 7 on the Higher Level examinations. These credits may be used to reduce the number of courses required for graduation, but normally may not be used to satisfy any other degree requirement.

Alfred University: Up to one year of credit (30 semester hours) will be granted for students who have earned an International Baccalaureate diploma. Students who have not completed the diploma will be awarded equivalent credit up to two introductory courses for higher level examinations in which a grade of 5 or better has been earned.

Arizona State University: Students who present an International Baccalaureate Diploma/Certificate may qualify for university credit, depending on the level of the examination and the grade received. Arizona State University grants credit for higher level courses only.

Assumption College: Higher level examinations completed with a score of 5, 6 or 7 will be considered for credit.

Bard College: Please visit website for an explanation of credit awarded.

(<http://www.bard.edu/admission/accepted/enrollment/>)

Barnard College: For the International Baccalaureate diploma, the number of credits listed is granted, up to a maximum of 30. Students who do not receive the diploma will receive 6 Barnard points for each Higher Level examination score of 5 or higher.

Barry University: The IB diploma is recognized and advanced credit will be awarded. Advanced standing will be given for scores of 4 or better on IB higher level examinations. Credit is awarded on a course-by-course basis. For most recent credit information, please visit: <http://www.barry.edu/2plus2/Admissions/transferCredits.htm>

Barton College: The maximum number of hours to be granted is 30 credit hours. For further information and updates please visit the website and note requirements for math and English. <http://www.american.edu/american/registrar/geninfo/undergradrequirements.htm>

Berklee College of Music: International Baccalaureate is treated just like a French Bac or a Swiss Maturita, some credits are granted. Because course content in music subjects may differ greatly between schools, we do not accept music courses as direct transfer credits from other institutions. However, at Berklee, placement examinations in written theory and ear training are administered to all entering students during the registration period of each semester.

Boston College: Beginning with the class of 2011, Boston College's IB policy is that we will grant advanced placement only for Higher Level exam scores of 6 or 7 only. We do not grant credit or exemptions for any Standard level exams. Students who score a 6 or 7 on three HL exams and a B or better on TOK may apply for advanced standing at the end of their first year at BC. Students who are accepted for advanced standing must graduate in 3 years.

Bowling Green State University: Applicants may fulfill the requirements for admission by presenting an International Baccalaureate Diploma or Certificate. Grades of four through seven in higher-level subjects may be considered for individual course credit. Students with questions about the IB should contact the Office of Admissions at choosebgsu@bgsu.edu

Brown University: Brown University was one of the first colleges to accord credit for IB work. Brown recognizes that the IB represents achievement beyond most standard high school programs advanced placement and standing is therefore regularly granted. Three higher level courses can be assigned six course credits at Brown. With departmental approval, a standard level course with a superior mark may be counted for one credit.

Bryn Mawr College: The College is generous in awarding credit, the bulk of which can be applied to the graduation requirements of the College.

Bucknell University: IB Diploma recipients, with a minimum score of 5 on each of the six subject examinations, will be awarded six course credits toward their degree requirements at Bucknell.

Diploma recipients, not meeting the minimum score requirements, will receive course credit for only those higher level courses passed with a score of 5 or higher. IB Certificate students (non-diploma) will receive course credit for each higher level course passed with an examination score of 5 or higher.

California State University: CSU believes that students who successfully complete the recommended number of courses at the appropriate levels of the IB Diploma Program have attained a high level of achievement and are eligible for admission.

Canisius College: Students who has earned the IB Diploma will be awarded a maximum of 30 credit hours and will have individual diploma exams evaluated as transfer credit to be applied toward major, general studies, area studies, or elective course requirements

Carnegie Mellon University: Carnegie Mellon recognizes the IB examinations and may grant advanced standing and/or credit in various fields for scores of 6 and 7 on the higher level examinations. If students are eligible, we encourage them to take the IB examinations and have the results sent directly to Carnegie Mellon where the appropriate dean will evaluate their scores.

Catholic University: IB Diploma recipients may receive credits up to a maximum of nine courses: higher level subjects with scores of 5-7 are eligible for credits equivalent to two semester courses each standard level subjects with scores of 5-7 are eligible for credits equivalent to one semester course each. All awards of credit are subject to review of IB Diploma Program requirements.

Claremont McKenna College: The IB higher level examinations are recognized, and placement in courses is based on the condition of receiving a 6 or 7 in those courses.

Coastal Carolina University: Only scores of 4, 5, 6 and 7 on higher level exams may earn credit. No credit will be awarded for standard/subsidiary level examinations.

Colgate University: IB applicants are recognized for their rigor of study. Students wishing to submit requests for college credit because of prior achievement in the IB, may do so for those courses taken through the Higher Level. Courses taken through the Standard Level are not granted Colgate course credit.

College of Mount St. Vincent: Credit is offered based on individual higher level examination results, as well as performance on the full IB Diploma Program. Advanced credit may be earned for scores of 5, 6, and 7 on higher level examinations. Students may earn up to a full semester of standing in this manner. Credit may be considered for passes of 4.

College of William and Mary: The College of William and Mary accepts test scores on International Baccalaureate examinations for credit from incoming students. Typically, a score of: 5, 6, or 7 on a Higher Level IB exam will earn a student credit.

Columbia University - Columbia College Undergraduate Admission: Columbia University grants 6 points of credit for an IB HL exam score of 6 or 7, provided the score is in a discipline that Columbia offers as an undergraduate program. However, the maximum number of points a student may receive is 16, and no points are awarded until the first year of study is completed.

Columbia University - Fu Foundation School of Engineering: Entering students may be granted 6 points of credit for each score of 6 or 7 on IB Higher Level Examinations if taken in disciplines offered as undergraduate programs at Columbia.

Concordia College - New York: The IB program is recognized and individual course credits are accepted for higher level (HL) IB courses with test scores of 4, 5, 6, or 7. For each course presented and accepted, up to four semester hours of credit will be granted to be used in the student's program as appropriate, to a maximum of 30 hours. No credit will be granted for standard level (SL) courses.

Cooper Union for the Advancement of Science & Art: Cooper Union examines each student's record individually for advanced placement and/or credit consideration. Credit for IB courses is not automatically granted, but will be considered along with other factors including: SAT I and SAT II scores (especially mathematics and physics or chemistry), and the student's high school record

Cornell University: To view the IB policy for Cornell University, please visit the Cornell University website. (<http://admissions.cornell.edu/pdf/advance-placement-and-international-credentials>)

CUNY - Queens College: Queens College (City University of New York) recognizes the IB and offers course credit for high level examinations only. Most departments require a minimum score of 4.

Dartmouth College: Dartmouth College recognizes the IB Diploma and grants up to six course credits for superior performance on the Higher Level examinations, provided that the exams cover fields of study represented by Dartmouth's academic departments in the Arts and Sciences

Drew University: Students with an IB Diploma have the potential to enter Drew with sophomore standing (a maximum of 32 credits will be awarded). Higher Level IB Courses (HL) - Students with a score of 5 or above will be awarded 8 Drew credits up to a maximum of 32 credits. Standard Level IB Courses (SL) - Students with a score of 5 or above will be awarded 4 Drew credits up to a maximum of 32 credits.

Drexel University: The significance of superior scores earned by incoming freshmen is recognized on select higher level or superior IB examinations. Consideration of IB performance may accelerate a student's progress in his/her respective degree program.

Duke University: Placement and credit are available for IB higher level examinations with scores of 6 and 7. Students must obtain course equivalency recommendations from the relevant departments.

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University-Daytona Beach: Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University recognizes the IB Diploma Program and awards credit for IB subjects passed at the Higher Level with the grade of 4 or better with the exception of math which requires a minimum score of 5. Some credit may be awarded at the Standard Level based on faculty recommendation.

Emory University: Emory University grants four semester hours of credit for scores of five, six, or seven on the higher-level International Baccalaureate (IB) Examinations in the subject areas offered in Emory College.

Fashion Institute of Technology-SUNY: Students who take IB courses and receive grades of 4 or higher may be awarded up to 30 semester hours of transfer credit upon receipt of the official IB transcripts.

Florida Gulf Coast University: For diploma and certificate holders, students with IB scores of 4 or higher on IB exams will be awarded up to 30 semester hours of credit in FGCU courses. In awarding credit for qualifying IB scores, higher-level exams will be given priority in awarding credit. IB Diploma holders will have the opportunity to apply to FGCU's Honors Program (which includes priority registration, honors scholarships, priority housing, book stipends, and select Honors classes.)

Fordham University (all campuses): Fordham does recognize the IB program. We will award credit for scores on Higher Level exams (only) as follows: 5 = Elective credit; 6 or 7 = May replace a course in our Core Curriculum

Georgetown University: Credit will be awarded for specified higher level subjects with scores of 6 or 7. Please consult the website for details. (<https://college.georgetown.edu/guide-to-prereg-AP-IB>)

Georgia Institute of Technology: The IB recognition policy for Georgia Tech can be found on their website (www.gatech.edu)

Harvard University: Students who have earned the International Baccalaureate (IB) diploma with a grade of 7 on at least three Higher Level examinations may qualify for Advanced Standing. Students wishing to use IB exams for Advanced Standing should request that the IB Americas' office send an official IB transcript directly to Harvard.

Hofstra University: Hofstra recognizes secondary schools offering the International Baccalaureate program, and students who earn the International Baccalaureate diploma, as participating in the most challenging, comprehensive, interdisciplinary curriculum available. Students in the full International Baccalaureate program may receive up to 30 credits.

Howard University: Only IB Diploma holders are eligible to receive advanced placement and/or credit consideration. Credit awarded or course exemption granted will be determined by the student's academic department.

Indiana University - Purdue University at Indianapolis: The rigor of the IB curriculum is recognized, and up to eight semester hours of credit will be granted for higher level exams with scores of 4 or above.

Iona College: Iona College recognizes the rigor of the IB curriculum and grants credit(s) for Higher Level (HL) courses with examination scores of 5, 6, and 7, provided the course is in a discipline that Iona offers in its undergraduate curriculum. Standard Level (SL) courses are not transferable. HL course credit may be applied toward the College core or may be used to fulfill elective credit(s).

Ithaca College: Students entering Ithaca College will receive 6-8 credits (equivalent of 2 semester courses) for each higher level examination completed with a score of 4-7. Students who receive the full IB Diploma may qualify for sophomore standing. No credit is awarded for standard level examinations.

Johns Hopkins University: To view the IB recognition policy, please visit the website. (<https://apply.jhu.edu/apply/exam-credit/>)

Johnson and Wales University: Baccalaureate credentials, awards credits and other special program status are awarded on an individual basis to students who have achieved a grade of 4 or better on International Baccalaureate exams; up to a maximum of 45 credits.

King's College of Pennsylvania: Students must present scores of 4, 5, 6, or 7 in higher level subjects in order to qualify for credit in specific courses. Students presenting the IB Diploma will be reviewed on an individual basis for possible credit for standard level subjects with a score of 5 or higher.

Long Island University: LIU Post will award academic credit for the International Baccalaureate curriculum. The International Baccalaureate curriculum consists of six subject areas. Each area will be awarded six (6) semester credits for those students who earn a score of 4 or higher on the Higher Level examinations.

Manhattanville College: Manhattanville College recognizes IB is a challenging program of studies and takes that into consideration when evaluating an applicant's record. Students completing the IB Diploma may receive up to 30 credits or the equivalent of 2 semesters of work based upon the receipt of official results. In addition, students who are not pursuing the full Diploma may receive 3 units of college credit (equivalent to 1 course) for each Certificate subject at the higher level with a result of 5, 6 or 7.

Marquette University: Marquette recognizes the rigorous academic preparation provided by students who pursue IB courses as part of their high school curriculum. The IB credit and placement chart (online) provides guidance to students who have taken IB examinations.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology: Only exams taken at the Higher Level (HL), given in specific areas, will be considered for course credit.

NCAA Eligibility Center: NCAA Eligibility Center considers IB diplomas as proof of graduation and uses SL and HL results to calculate GPA.

New England College: Students holding an IB Diploma may be granted sophomore standing, that is, 30 credits. New England College equivalent courses are specified where appropriate.

New York University: IB Higher Level examinations passed with grades of 6 or 7 may be considered for credit and/or placement depending on the area of study and/or program requirements. Typically, 8 semester hours of credit (equivalent to two terms or one academic year of a specific subject), will be awarded for each higher level examination meeting the requirements of NYU.

Northeastern University: Northeastern University recognizes the advanced level of academic preparation offered by the IB. Up to two classes of credit is generally granted for scores of 5, 6 or 7 on each higher level examination, as applicable to the degree being pursued. For further information, please contact the Undergraduate Admissions Office at Northeastern.

Pace University: Credit or advanced standing may be awarded for higher level examinations scores of 4, 5, 6 or 7. Credit and advanced standing is determined on a course-by-course basis by the academic department.

Pennsylvania State University: Advanced placement credit for subjects is examined at the higher level for courses in which scores of 5, 6, or 7 were received. The University will consider awarding transfer credit equivalent to the introductory sequence in a comparable subject area at Penn State. This policy applies to all 19 Penn State locations where freshman may begin their studies.

Princeton University: Princeton University recognizes the IB and uses examination results for advanced placement purposes only. A score of 6 or 7 on the higher level examinations is normally accorded advanced placement recognition. Advanced placement can be used in three ways: 1. to enter upper-level courses 2. to fulfill the foreign language requirement 3. to become eligible for graduation in three or three and one-half years (advanced standing).

Purdue University-West Lafayette: Purdue will grant credit only for scores of 5 or higher earned on the higher-level subject exams from the International Baccalaureate program, unless otherwise indicated below. For more information please see the credit chart online.

Quinnipiac University: The IB Diploma Program is recognized as a course of rigorous study. Students will be considered for advanced standing for courses completed at the higher level with exam scores of 4 or higher. Courses may apply toward satisfying the course distribution requirements for the College Curriculum, a student's individual major or elective credit.

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute: Rensselaer regards the International Baccalaureate (IB) program as a rigorous advanced program of study, and these opportunities are extended in our interdisciplinary courses, majors, and undergraduate research opportunities. Students may be granted advanced standing or credits for the International Baccalaureate Higher Level.

Rochester Institute of Technology: RIT recognizes rigor of the IB level work. Credit may be awarded for higher level examinations completed with a grade of 5 or better. Credit is awarded on a course-by-course basis and in the context of the student's intended program at RIT.

Sacred Heart University: Sacred Heart University considers the IB outstanding for its integrated curriculum and its rigor. Students awarded the IB Diploma will be granted the option of sophomore standing and will have their individual diploma examinations recorded as transfer credit.

Saint Joseph's University (PA): Credit is awarded for up to three successfully completed Higher Level classes in which a score of 5 or higher is achieved on the appropriate IB examination.

Salve Regina University: Salve Regina University recognizes academic achievement in coursework of the International Baccalaureate Program by granting transfer credit in appropriate university disciplines. Higher Level examinations with scores of 5, 6, or 7 may earn 6 credits per course. Higher Level scores of 4 may earn 3 credits. Standard Level examinations with scores of 6 or 7 may earn 3 credits per course.

Sarah Lawrence College: The rigor of the IB Diploma Program is recognized and Diploma candidates are considered for advanced standing. It is possible to receive up to a full year's credit. Certificate holders may receive credit for grades of 5, 6 or 7 in higher level examinations.

Siena College: International Baccalaureate Higher Level examinations will be reviewed for credit for scores of 5 or better. No credit is awarded for Standard Level examinations.

St. Bonaventure University: St. Bonaventure University recognizes the IB Diploma and offers individual course credit and advanced placement. Students who score 4, 5, 6, or 7 on any higher level examination can be granted credit on a course-by-course basis.

St. Mary's College of Maryland: St. Mary's College of Maryland welcomes students who are involved in the International Baccalaureate (IB) program. Review for credit is generally given for students with IB higher level exam scores of 5 or above.

SUNY Binghamton: Binghamton University recognizes schools offering IB programs and the students who earn IB diplomas as offering or having accomplished the most challenging comprehensive curriculum available. IB participation is recommended, taken into account and considered during the application process.

SUNY Buffalo State College: Buffalo State College recognizes the academic rigor of the IB curriculum and takes this into consideration when reviewing an applicant's record. Students who have earned an IB Diploma may receive a maximum of 30 credits. Students who have achieved a score of 5 or greater on the higher-level exams will be awarded credit on a course-by-course basis. Students may receive a maximum of 30 credits towards their Bachelor's Degree for all credit earned by examination.

SUNY College at Brockport: SUNY Brockport considers IB students favorably during the Admissions process. Students earning an IB diploma will be awarded a maximum of six credits for Higher Level IB courses with a score of 4 or higher. If a student does not have an IB diploma, they will be awarded a maximum of six credits for Higher Level courses with a score of 5 or higher. (A maximum of 30 credits may be awarded for International Baccalaureate courses.) IB course credits may be used to fill General Education requirements.

SUNY College at Cortland: Students enrolling at the State University of New York at Cortland who have completed IB coursework will be provided the following advanced standing towards their Baccalaureate Degree: 30 semester hours of credit (one year's advanced standing) for students who have completed the IB Diploma. For students who have not completed the Diploma, equivalent credit up to two introductory courses will be awarded for each higher level examination in which a grade of 4 or better has been earned, to a maximum of 30 credits. Standard level subjects will be evaluated on an individual basis.

SUNY College at Fredonia: Fredonia recognizes the academic rigor of the IB curriculum and takes this into consideration when reviewing an applicant's record. Students who have earned an IB Diploma may receive a maximum of 30 credits. Students who have achieved a score of 5 or greater on the higher-level exams will be awarded credit on a course-by-course basis.

SUNY College at Oneonta: Students who have completed IB course work will be awarded the following advanced standing toward their bachelor's degree: 30 semester hours of credit (one year's advanced standing) for students who have completed the IB Diploma. For students who have not completed the Diploma, up to six semester credits (two introductory courses) will be awarded for each higher level examination in which a grade of 4 or better was earned.

SUNY College at Oswego: SUNY Oswego welcomes IB Diploma students and will consider their IB Higher courses with a grade of 4 or better for advanced standing. Students may receive a maximum of 30 semester hours, approximately a year of study.

SUNY College at Plattsburgh: SUNY Plattsburgh welcomes IB Diploma and Certificate students. IB Higher-level examinations are considered on a course-by-course basis with a grade of 4 or better for credit toward completion of the Bachelor's degree. Students receive a maximum of 30 semester hours if the IB diploma has been completed.

SUNY New Paltz: The State University at New Paltz issues a full 30 credits for the IB Diploma where it is awarded. For certificate courses, credit is issued for grades of 5, 6 and 7.

SUNY Purchase College: Purchase College awards credits to students receiving the IB Diploma. Credit is awarded for Higher Level courses completed with grades of 5 or higher. Students receiving the IB Diploma would receive the maximum of 30 credits.

SUNY Stony Brook: Stony Brook University will award six credits for International Baccalaureate Higher Level exams with scores of 5 or better. No credit is awarded for IB standard level courses.

SUNY University at Albany: The University at Albany will award 30 credits to students completing the requirements for the IB Diploma with a cumulative score of at least 30 (including both Standard Level and Higher Level exams) and no score lower than a 4 (satisfactory).

SUNY University at Buffalo: Students who have completed an International Baccalaureate (IB) diploma with a score of 30 or higher will be awarded 30 credits (maximum) for all exams, including Standard-Level (SL). This credit and the equivalencies will apply toward their degree and in some cases toward their major and general education requirements.

Syracuse University: Credit for higher level IB examinations completed with a grade of 5 or higher will be awarded according to university policy.

Temple University: Students earning scores of 5 or above on a higher level exam may be eligible for credit.

Texas A&M University: Texas A&M University will grant at least 24 semester credit hours of course-specific college credit in subject appropriate areas on all IB exam scores of 4 or above as long as the incoming freshman has earned an IB diploma.

Tulane University: Tulane will award credit or advanced placement for IB scores of 5 or greater on a higher level test.

University of California: Students completing the International Baccalaureate (IB) diploma with a score of 30 or above will receive 30 quarter units (20 semester units) total toward their UC undergraduate degree.

University of Massachusetts (Boston): Both the IB Diploma and Certificates Programmes are recognized. The university will award 6 to 8 credits for each Higher Level exam passed with a score of 4 or better. (Eight credits are awarded in the sciences and six credits are awarded in all other subject areas.)

University of Pennsylvania: The University of Pennsylvania recognizes the IB and appreciates the challenge which completing the Diploma program represents. Advanced standing credit is granted to students whose scores on higher level exams are 5 or higher. Penn will also consider issuing credit for individual Certificates when the full Diploma is not obtained.

University of the Sciences in Philadelphia: Students may qualify for advanced standing through the International Baccalaureate Programme. IB examination results will be evaluated on a course by course basis and credits will be awarded for science and mathematics courses provided an IB examination score of 6 or 7 is achieved. In non-science courses, credits will be awarded with examination scores of 5, 6, or 7.

Utica College: Any student who completes a full IB Program may be eligible to receive advanced standing and up to one full year of credit from Utica College.

Vassar College: Vassar College is pleased to recognize the IB program as a rigorous course of study. Applicants for admission enrolled in an IB Diploma program will be viewed as taking a competitive secondary school curriculum. IB Higher Level exams passed with scores of 5, 6, or 7 will be eligible for course credit.

Villanova University: Villanova University recognizes the rigors of the IB curriculum and grants placement and/or credit for certain Higher Level IB courses.

Wagner College: Wagner College recognizes the IB as a challenging program of study and takes this into consideration when reviewing an applicant's record. Students who present scores of 5 or better on the IB higher level examinations may be granted advanced standing and/or credit. Credit is offered on an individual, course-by-course basis.

West Virginia University: Applicants are welcome who have taken the International Baccalaureate program. Credit is offered for both Higher and Standard Level courses. See website for details.

Yale University: Yale awards as many as two acceleration credits (the equivalent of two Yale courses) in certain subjects to students who have received either a 6 or 7 on the higher level examinations. These credits can be applied if the student wishes to graduate early, and the decision to accelerate is made during sophomore year. No acceleration credits are awarded for standard level examinations. Students who score a 6 or 7 on higher level examinations may also use these scores to place into more advanced courses in some disciplines.

For more information about college advanced standing and the IB Diploma visit www.ibo.org/university-admission