

HIGHLAND PARK SCHOOL OPENS.

Enrollment for Fall Term Is Ninety-Five—Pupils Will Have Chance to Take Music.

John S. Armstrong Public School of the Highland Park Independent School District opened for the fall term yesterday morning with an enrollment of ninety-five. Of this number fifteen registered in the kindergarten department. The faculty of the school is composed of five regular teachers and a music teacher. Miss Chariton, it is said, has been given the privilege of operating a music division independent of the regular school classes.
