The California School for the Deaf anticipates openings for teachers for the 2018-2019 school year.

DUTIES: Teachers are responsible for planning and implementing quality-learning experiences, preparing semester plans and daily lesson plans, and creating a stimulating classroom environment conducive to intellectual discovery within a Deaf bilingual program. Teachers participate in the Individual Education/Individual Transition Plan process and integrate IEP/ITP activities into their lessons. They plan assessment activities that evaluate students' progress in relation to the Common Core Standards or the Alternate Curriculum and then prepare reports of student learning progress. Teachers integrate character education into their classes and are models of good citizenship. Positive relations with parents, students, and professional colleagues, continuous professional development, commitment to social justice, empowerment of families and support for diversity, and a spirit of collegiality and teamwork are expected. Commitment to ASL and English instruction within a Deaf-centered learning environment is critical to the success of the teacher and CSD. Teachers also participate in extra-curricular programs. This position is designated as safety sensitive and is subject to reasonable suspicion drug and alcohol testing.
