Can a representative of the Natchez-Adams School District or a media outlet, Partner in Education, photograph, record or release information on your child for school, sports and other extracurricular activities purposes and publish?

Yes No

If no, please explain:

In compliance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA-Pub. L. 93-380), you are hereby advised that (1) you have the right to review the student's educational records within 45 days of the date the school receives a request to review and the right to submit an amendment to the student's records that the parent or eligible student believes are inaccurate; and (2) the school publishes and makes available personal information to the public through various documents, either or in part or whole, such as student's name, grade, parents' names, honor roll, transcript, picture of student who achieves and honor, etc. In addition, the guidance counselors make available to colleges and scholarship agencies information regarding test results, class ranking, grade point average, and other academic data. If this form is not returned within 14 days of the 1st day of school, the District has the legal right to make the information public upon request.
