Students:

1. Report conflicts immediately in person to the AP teacher and make arrangements for a make-up test.
Please note the teacher or chairperson must approve a CONFLICT in advance and a conflict CANNOT be made-up during another AP qualifier causing another conflict.
3. Students must make every effort to take the AP qualifying exam on the date assigned, there are limited acceptable excuses for missing a qualifying exam.
2. Notify the AP teacher ASAP if you are permitted extended time.

AP Qualifying TestsTeachers:

1. Post acceptance lists by Student ID# (exclude names) in alphabetical order.
Submit copy to your Department Chairperson and Nancy Siegel. When possible please provide lists to Guidance and Chairpersons prior to posting date.
2. E-mail me (robert.keenan@millburn.org) your acceptance list in 2 columns in Excel:
 - a. First column: Student ID; Second Column: Name.
 - b. Guidance counselors need the student names collated for all AP courses.
3. Post students not accepted by Student ID # (exclude names) in rank order.
Submit copy to your Department Chairperson and Nancy Siegel.
4. Please make arrangements for extended time.
 - a. Students are required to notify you if they need extended time.
 - b. The application could include a check box for students to indicate such a need.
5. Submit to your Chairperson:
 - a. 3 copies of the qualifying exams in case of summer transfers, etc.
 - b. 3 copies of any summer assignments and any books/materials needed.
All sections of a course should have the same summer assignment
6. Please advise students of the following policy:
AP candidates whose final grade does not meet the Accelerated criteria above may be removed from the AP course unless the Department grants probationary status that is to depend upon summer work and first quarter performance.
