

STATE OF HAWAII
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

OPT OUT FORM

for non-disclosure of a secondary school student's name, address, and telephone listing to military recruiters

The No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 requires school districts to release the names, addresses, and telephone listings of secondary school students to military recruiters upon their request unless the student or his/her parent/legal guardian requests that the student's contact information not be released without the prior written consent of the secondary school student or parent/legal guardian. Hawaii Department of Education telephone listings include unlisted numbers. NCLB requires school districts to inform the secondary student and the student's parent/legal guardian of their right to opt out.

If this form is completed, signed, and returned to the student's school, the school and school district shall not release the student's name, address, and telephone listing to military recruiters without prior written consent of the secondary school student or parent/legal guardian.

This form can be completed and signed by EITHER the secondary school student OR the student's parent/legal guardian.
