

ROSE BALDAUF MOORE

1958 Graduate of Thomas W. Harvey High School

- Editor-in-Chief of the Harbinger
- Member and President of Library Board
- Member of LeMasque Club
- Member and Secretary of Thespians
- Member of Quill and Scroll
- Member and Treasurer of Latin Club
- Member and Treasurer of French Club
- Member and Secretary of Scarlet Torch
- Part-time Reporter for the Painesville Telegraph
 - First-page story in 1957
 - Received awards from United Press International for stories and photography

Career Service:

- 1958 - Reporter for for the Painesville Telegraph, writer of "Skynotes" column
- 1958 - Reporter for the Fairport Beacon
- 1993 - Columnist for Gazette Newspapers and the Lake County Tribune
- 1970's - Co-founder of R. L. Moore Homes

Community Service:

- Publisher of "The Concordian" community news from 1979 – 1986
- Co-hosted a public service television program "Shoreline News and Views" for Telemedia Cable Company
- Initiated political candidate forums in Concord Township
- Member of the Concord Township Board of Zoning Appeals for 11 years
- Member of the Lake County Bar Association Grievance Committee for 16 years

Honors:

- 1958 – Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen Award
- Received a Resolution of Commendation from the Ohio House of Representatives for her public service and commitment to the community
- 1981 – Grand Marshall of the Concord Community Days Parade
- 1984 – Concord Township Citizen of the Year
- 2000 - Received two Ohio Excellence in Journalism Awards from the Press Club of Cleveland

Other Accomplishments:

- 1965 – Soloed in a Piper Colt airplane
- 1965 – Co-pilot in the All Women's International Air Race from New York to Nassau
- Instrumental in restoring the original name of Jordan Creek in Concord Township
- Assisted with and documented the restoration of Concord Township's Old Stone School
- Studied, promoted, and wrote about local area history through speaking engagements and her newspaper columns
- Historian, writer, and advocate of Thomas W. Harvey High School

Inducted:
Member of The Harvey Alumni Association
Distinguished Graduates
May 29, 2012