

Kimberly Kelly (Chair), a former resident of the Bronx for 32 years, is currently serving as a federal government attorney. Previous to her position with the federal government, Ms. Kelly was an Assistant Attorney General for the Office of the New York State Attorney General and an Assistant District Attorney for the Office of the Bronx County District Attorney. Ms. Kelly is admitted to practice law in New York State, all four United States District Courts situated in New York, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. Ms. Kelly received her Juris Doctor degree from St. John's University School of Law in 1998, and she graduated summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree from St. John's University in 1995.