To Know God...To Live with Honor...To Change the World...

Valiant Parents: The school year is nearly one-third of the way over! With just a couple of weeks to go to the end of the trimester, please double check your students grades on gradelink. Lost your username and password? E-mail your teacher and they can help! Information about parent/teacher conferences will be coming out early November.

Reminder: On Mass days, teachers must line up students and lock their doors by 7:50 am. If your child arrives after 7:45 am, there is the possibility that your child's backpack will have to remain outside of the classroom during Mass. Thank you for making sure they are here on time.
