

SHAC Meeting 10/24/2012

Time: 12:00 PM

Location: Smithville Elementary Dining

Minutes: Review of Lice policy-discussion of athletic equipment

Discussion of Antes screening included-state required screening; letters sent home to parents regarding results and need for follow-up, screening done thru physical education classes with kudos to Kris Armstrong for assistance

Discussion of HPV vaccine- Dr. Spears spoke in regard to safety of vaccine- approval for male and females-not required for school attendance- recommended by Dr. McNulty to offer vaccine thru Junior High and High school nurse's offices-discussion regarding recommendation thru SHAC to offer vaccine

Motion to offer HPV vaccine under TVC made by Judy Bergeron and seconded by Candy Biehle supported unanimously by SHAC committee.

Introduction of Attendees

Wesly nurse to cover Bastrop/Smithville area offering diabetes education, Blood pressure screening, blood sugar screenings, possible offer exercise and programs in area schools-encouragement to offer education on obesity and nutrition

My Baby and Me fundraiser-November 3-proceeds to help construct home for crisis pregnancy mothers and babies in Bastrop County

Candy Biehle-changes in cafeteria requiring each child to take fruit or juice along with vegetable-data turned in offering nutritionally balanced meal-need for parental education-report of garden starting at Brown Primary awaiting grant to fund-Kudos to Candy for introducing guidelines to allow us to be proactive for students-smoothies now being offered at high school-introduction to parents to introduce new foods along with recipes-student nutrition committee started at high school upon students request

Anna Murray-kudos for being nominated to USDA committee

Health Department will be at Recreation Center administering flu shots

No further discussion

Meeting adjourned: 12:57 PM

