

Dear Parents and Families:

Starting Monday, October 27th, Belt Line Elementary will be celebrating National Red Ribbon Week! This an important time for our students and staff to learn about Drug Awareness. We have some special days scheduled next week, so please be sure to check below.

Monday, October 27th	"Use your head, Don't do Drugs" Students may wear crazy hair or crazy Hats!
Tuesday, October 28th	"Turn your back on Drugs Tuesday" - Students and staff will come to school with their clothes turned backwards.
Wednesday, October 29th	Stay in the Game...Stay away from drugs. Students may wear their favorite team jersey. (Basketball, football, soccer etc...)
Thursday, October 30th	Put a sock on Drugs...Crazy Sock Day- Students may wear the craziest socks they can find.
Friday, October 31st	My Story Doesn't Include Drugs Students will dress up in their favorite storybook character costume. Costumes may NOT include blood, guns, or weapons of any kind.

We hope this will be a meaningful week for our students, and we greatly appreciate your participation. Have fun, but please keep in mind that with all "dress-up" days, excellent behavior is still required. Thanks!
