

SOCIAL SCIENCE

freshman option

For those of you who are planning on taking AP World History during your sophomore year, Westmont offers students the opportunity to take on-level World History your freshmen year. This allows you to avoid the one year gap in Social Science curriculum and allows you to practice the skills needed to be successful in AP World History. Such skills include document analysis, comparison, synthesis, contextualization, thesis statement writing, essay strategies, and continuity and change over time. Taking World History your freshman year is NOT A REQUIREMENT for taking AP World History but it is recommended.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

freshman option

For those of you who are planning on taking AP World History during your sophomore year, Westmont offers students the opportunity to take on-level World History your freshmen year. This allows you to avoid the one year gap in Social Science curriculum and allows you to practice the skills needed to be successful in AP World History. Such skills include document analysis, comparison, synthesis, contextualization, thesis statement writing, essay strategies, and continuity and change over time. Taking World History your freshman year is NOT A REQUIREMENT for taking AP World History but it is recommended.