Parent Statement: I support my son/daughter's decision to enter the Art, Media, and Performance Academy at Monterey High School and will actively support the academy in fostering good attendance, attitude, and academic skills. I understand that this is a college preparatory program with standards mandated by the State of California, which are required, to remain in the academy. I also grant permission for my student to participate in the entry selection interview.

Student Requirements

It is my understanding that the following is required of me when I am accepted into the AMP Academy:

1. I am required to enroll and successfully complete the AMP Academy courses as outlined below in addition to meeting the Monterey High School graduation requirements.
2. I am required to fulfill my obligation of 10 volunteer hours per year in the Academy (30 hours total).
3. I am required to go on all mandatory fieldtrips.
4. I am required to fulfill my job shadowing requirements with the AMP Academy.
5. I am required to complete a 30-hour summer internship between my 11th and 12th grade years.
6. I am required to take the AMP Senior Portfolio class in which I will be creating an on-line portfolio and presentations at our Gala events.
7. I am required to dress appropriately on all fieldtrips.

If I am unable to complete the above requirements, I will be asked to leave the AMP Academy.
