

Parent/Student Refusal Form for Military Information Requests
(High School Students Only)

Unless you request otherwise, your student's high school is required by federal law to give your student's name, address, and phone number to any military recruiter who asks.

Any parent, or any student over the age of 18, may request that student's information NOT be released to military recruiters unless you formally consent. If you do not make this request, release of the information is automatic when military recruiters ask. Please sign below and return the form to your student's school, if you wish to require parental approval for release of your student's information to military recruiters. Parental permission is not required for any student over the age of 18.
