Bishop McCort Athletic Department Press Release Thursday, August 11, 2016

JOHNSTOWN – The Bishop McCort Athletic Department has announced the hiring of Megan Kyper as head girls' tennis coach.

Kyper, a 2002 graduate of Central Cambria High School, joins Bishop McCort's coaching staff after playing four years in high school and one year at Juniata College. Kyper is active in the Greater Johnstown Tennis Associate Summer League as well as the Ebensburg Tennis Center.

Athletic Director Tim Schultz said, "Megan's passion for tennis is evident and we are confident that our student athletes will benefit from her knowledge of the sport."

"It is a great pleasure to take on the girls' tennis head coaching position at Bishop McCort Catholic High School. I am grateful for the opportunity to work with this group," said Kyper.

Kyper holds a Bachelor of Science degree in interior design from Indiana University of Pennsylvania and is currently employed at Peoples Nature Gas as part of the engineering and design group. Kyper resides in Ebensburg and enjoys spending time with her five nephews and one niece.

About Bishop McCort Catholic High School: Bishop McCort Catholic High School (BMCHS), built in 1922, is an incorporated Catholic high school located in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, approximately 67 miles east of Pittsburgh. Students of all religious denominations are challenged daily throughout the curriculum and school program to develop independent and critical thinking skills necessary to be competitive in today's global economy. One indicator of the quality of McCort's academic program is the success of its students in baccalaureate studies. The Class of 2015 was offered a record-breaking $9.1 million in scholarship with 97% planning to pursue post-secondary degrees. In addition, those students made the time to perform 7,200 hours of community service during their senior year. BMCHS is accredited by the Middle States Commission and the PA Department of Education.
