In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Lord, God of peace, who has created man, the object of your kindness, to be close to you in glory, we bless you and we thank you because you have sent us your beloved son, Jesus, making him the architect of all salvation, the source of all peace, the bond of true brotherhood and sisterhood.

We thank you for the desire which your spirit of peace has roused in our hearts: to replace hatred with love, indifference with understanding, unconcern with care. Open yet more our hearts to the needs of all our brothers and sisters, so that we may be better able to build a culture of true peace.

Remember, Father of mercy, all who are in pain, who suffer for the cause of a more brotherly world. May your kingdom come: your kingdom of justice, of peace, of love; and may the earth be filled with your glory.

Amen.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation, under God, indivisible with liberty and justice for all. God Bless America.

Homeroom moderators: Please distribute rosters and ask students to correct the time from 4th period on. Please collect them and hold on to them until Back-to-School night tonight.

Students: Please remind your parents/guardians that they will be reporting to your homeroom at 7:00.

Freshman and new students please ask your parents/guardians to be in the auditorium by 6:30.

Maguire Scholars and Connelly Achievement Scholars check your email immediately.

Have you thought about joining Ministry Club this year? We're coming back better than ever, there will be many opportunities to make your faith come alive in new and exciting ways this year! Come by the Ministry office on Monday at 2:30 to see what its all about. All are welcome!

There will an Athletes Helping Athletes underclassman and new member meeting today at 2:45 in room 9.

All students must try their swipe cards by tomorrow. If there are any problems after that, they will need to pay for a new card.

Any student who rings the front door bell because they do not have their swipe card will receive demerits.

Auditions for the Fall musical, Cinderella, will be held this Friday, September 15, 2017, after school until 5:30pm in the St. Hubert High School auditorium. For specifics, please refer to the flyers posted in the cafeteria.

You are invited to Abbeyfest! Join us this Saturday for a day of music and fun. Cost is $20 for the whole day, and sponsorships are available. Stop by the Ministry office to sign up and learn more. Payment is due by today.

Stage Crew sign-ups will be today after school in room 217. All grades are welcome and experience is not required. Jobs could include working back stage with props and costumes, working the sound or working the lights. Training will be provided to any new comers (or anyone who needs a refresher)!

Attention all football lovers. Intramural flag football games will begin at the end of September. Please take a form outside of the Office of Student Affairs to sign your team up and place the completed form back in the envelope by September 26th. Schedules will be e-mailed to team captains who in turn should e-mail their team members. See Mrs. Ellis in room 9 with any questions.

Two art facts for the day:

- 1) The Philadelphia Orchestra was the first orchestra to appear in film, in 1937. In 1940, it performed all of the music for Disney's Fantasia. In 1948, it was the first to appear on television, and in 1973, it was the first American orchestra to perform in China.
- 2) The boy silhouetted on the crescent moon in the logo design of Hollywood Studio DreamWorks is actually the son of the illustrator, Robert Hunt. The SKG at the bottom stand for Steven Spielberg, Jeffery Katzenberg, and David Geffen, the three founders of the company.
