Official Clubs

Academic Quiz Bowl Team

Advisor(s): stephanie.greenberg@millburn.org
jacqueline.powers@millburn.org

Description: The Quiz Bowl team is a full year commitment. Competitions start in early October and culminate in a possible appearance at a national championship tournament in May or June. The majority of competitions utilize a “buzzer response” format similar to the “College Bowl” show, with two interscholastic teams of four competing. Millburn has a long-established reputation for success among the best teams in state & national competition.

Art Club

Advisor(s): diane.benjamin@millburn.org
mary.weber@millburn.org

Description: The Art Club gives students an opportunity to be creative after school in a supportive environment. Members may use any materials in the art room. The project they select can be in the field of fine art, including drawing, painting, or collage. Students may also choose a craft project, including mosaics, sewing, jewelry, and many more. No experience is necessary.

Art History Club (Not Active)

Advisor(s): gina.watts@millburn.org

Description: The Art History Club is a discussion group and interactive resources for students who have a passion for the study of art and architecture. We have symposiums on a variety of artists and their seminal works. We create artistic pieces and are planning a gathering at a local NYC museum for the spring.

Astronomy Club (Not Active)

Advisor(s):

Description: Our meetings focus on the interests of its members with a goal of sharing information with our community. Discussions in past meetings have involved principles in astronomy, cosmology, constellations, telescopes, and current events. We annually visit the Hayden Planetarium.

Bibliophiles Club

Advisor(s): kelly.lormand@millburn.org

Description: The purpose of Bibliophiles is to give students an opportunity to read and discuss books of their choice outside of the “academic” setting. The students choose a novel at each meeting and come back together to run a book club – type discussion. This club is entirely student-led and motivated.

Business Matters Club

Advisor(s): monica.smallman@millburn.org

Description: The Business Matters Club supports the growth and development of its members' marketing and management skills. The club develops skills and competence for marketing careers, to experience leadership and practice community service. Programs are designed to expand members' learning and implement skills in marketing, organization, time management, decision making, problem solving, communication and leadership.
