

box cars and one-eyed jacks

Congratulations! You have been selected to attend a Title I Parent Training

Friday, February 2, 2018 (Please see below for details pertaining to your student's grade level...)

Parents of Kindergarten through 4th Grade students please join us for a breakfast training from 9:00-11:00 at the Smyrna Event Center (formerly known as the Smyrna Town Center). We will begin serving breakfast at 8:30 with the presentation beginning at 9:00. Stephanie Bainbridge with Box Cars and One-Eyed Jacks will be sharing her expertise and strategies for math fluency. Ms. Bainbridge will be sharing strategies that are innovative and hands-on to make learning at home more enjoyable and productive and can be done as a family. The first 40 parents attending the breakfast training will receive a packet of materials to be able to replicate the math strategies at home.

Parents of 5th through 8th grade students, please join us for a lunch training from 12:00-2:00 also at the Smyrna Event Center. Lunch will be available beginning at 11:30 with the presentation beginning at 12:00. Ms. Bainbridge will be sharing strategies at the lunch training that will address math fluency for upper elementary and middle school. The first 40 parents attending the lunch training will also receive a packet of materials to be able to replicate math strategies at home with their student.
