

Cross: Nathan Bonnell

I chose to this drawing because it shows many things to me. First, it resembles the memory of Jesus when he was on the cross. This reminds me to always love our Lord, because what he had done for us. Second, this shows that Jesus cares for us and he will always help us through life.