Parent Leadership Committee Notes

December 02, 2016

Meeting opened at 9:09 a.m. by Jessica Sianez, President Raquel Toscano is absent.

First topic on the agenda is the school website, information was discussed with the committee in regards to having agenda's and notes posted up on the school website visible for all parents to see.

Jessica Sianez showed the committee the page with pictures and all information on there. She also explained the importance of taking notes, meetings made public to invite all parents and so parents are informed as well.

Second on the agenda is the Kory Hunter event, taking place in the city of South Gate on Monday, December 5th from 7:00-9:00 p.m. Parents were invited to get ideas for their upcoming Pozada and to sell food as well if they were interested. Bloomfield parents decided it was too soon to plan and decided they would go look for future events.

The PLN information was reviewed, Gabriela Castillo attended and was invited to present at Town Hall Meeting on Thursday, December 15th at 6:00 p.m. The information she had learned to share with the rest of the Bloomfield Parents. She agreed to do so.

Our Volunteer Appreciation Breakfast is scheduled for Thursday, December 8th at 9:00 a.m. in the parent center, Parents were invited to attend.

"Un Paso Mas" will be inviting parents to a special breakfast as well to all those parents that attended our support group throughout the year here at Bloomfield High School. The Breakfast will take place in the City of Bell Gardens, Mrs. Maria Morales will give out those invitations on Thursday.

The Pozada event was planned out for this upcoming Friday, December 16th from 12:30 to 2:30.

The PLC decided to contribute a small monetary donation to buy the food and two Piñatas. Ms. Perez will donate candy and Ms. Sandoval will donate pastries. The PLC will reach out to parents by handing out flyers to invite all parents to the event. They will also be accepting donations if any parents are interested.

Meeting adjourn at 10:07 a.m.
