

Dear Calvary Chapel Families,

We would like to inform you about an exciting upcoming opportunity! We will be having our first ever High School Pink-Out football game and would love to see our entire school family attending. The football game will be taking place on Thursday, October 19th at 7:30 PM and will be located at our home field at Orange Coast College. At this game, everyone is encouraged to wear their best pink in support of breast cancer awareness. We will collectively dazzle the stands with our support, not only for our incredible football team, but also for the hope that there will someday be a cure for breast cancer.

Additionally, if you or a woman in your family has been affected by breast cancer and has an amazing story to tell, we would love to hear from you and honor you at this game. If you are interested, please email calvarychapelpinkribbonclub@gmail.com with the name of the woman affected and part of her story. She will then receive free entrance to the Pink-Out football game, and will be invited to be a participant in our celebration ceremony before kickoff.

We are also looking for one of these brave women to perform our national anthem prior to the game. If this is something that interests you, please email calvarychapelpinkribbonclub@gmail.com for more information.

We hope to see you there! Thank you for joining us in this worthwhile cause.
