

ARISE Graduate Profile

ARISE graduates have equipped themselves with the knowledge, skills, and agency to lead successful lives as defined by themselves, their families, and the ARISE mission & vision.

ARISE graduates demonstrate KNOWLEDGE. They:

- Gain proficiency in academic subjects, making it possible to:
 - meet the University of California's A-G requirements
 - set and achieve goals in order to complete an academically rigorous course of study
 - understand and analyze their social identities, intersectionality, and how systems of power influence how society views them
 - defend their knowledge publicly & professionally
 - identify college and career pathways that will support them leading successful lives

ARISE graduates demonstrate SKILLS. They:

- Apply critical consciousness to the world around them
 - analyze and understand systems and structures of oppression and liberation
 - connect their content learning to the outside world and to their communities
- Navigate the professional world through participation in a community and public health internship
- Provide evidence of their ability to
 - Communicate Effectively
 - Collaborate Productively
 - Think Critically

ARISE graduates ARE Agents of Change. They:

- embody the Core Values of Lead, Build, Persevere, and Respect in order to act as agents of change in their communities
- have already acted in ways that transform their communities