

Edward Philip Anthony Horvath, Jr., M.D., M.P.H.

Education:

1964 Graduate of Thomas W. Harvey High School
Football Manager and Member of the Track Team
Member of Science Club, Vice-President and President of Latin Club
Member of Class Cabinet, Member and Secretary of Key Club
Sports Editor and Editor-in-Chief of the Harbinger
Member of Student Council and Leaders' Forum
Member of the WMPW Scholarship Club, Senior Honors, Quill & Scroll, and the National Honor Society
1968 Graduate of Western Reserve University – Bachelor of Arts with Honors in Biology
1971 Graduate of Ohio State University College of Medicine – Doctor of Medicine with Honors
1975 Graduate of the University of Minnesota School of Public Health – Master of Public Health

Postgraduate Training:

1971 – 1972 - Intern, Internal Medicine, University of Wisconsin
1972 – 1973 - Resident, Occupational Medicine, University of Minnesota, School of Public Health
1973 – 1974 - Resident, Internal Medicine and Postdoctoral Fellow, Pulmonary Disease, University of Wisconsin.
1974 – 1975 - Resident, Internal Medicine, University of Wisconsin
1975 – 1976 - Postdoctoral Fellow, Preventive Medicine and Pulmonary Disease, University of Wisconsin

Career Experience:

1978 – 1985 - Section Chief, Occupational Medicine, Marshfield Clinic
1985 – 1993 - Medical Director, Occupational Health, BP America, Inc.
1993 – 2000 - Staff Physician, Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Department of General Internal Medicine
2000 – 2003 - Medical Director, Global Healthcare and Medical Operations, General Electric Company
2004 – Present - Staff Physician, Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center

Military Experience:

1976 – 1978 - Lieutenant Commander, U.S. Navy Medical Corps
- Redesigned the Navy's asbestos medical surveillance program, now the largest program of its kind in the world
- Developed a lung function training course which has become the national standard in occupational health regulations
- Conducted research on the health effects of torpedo fuel
2004 – Present - Recommissioned as Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Army Medical Corps
- Participated in Operation Iraqi Freedom as Deputy Commander for the 344th Combat Support Hospital at Camp Bucca
- Stationed at Abu Ghraib prison hospital, caring for U.S. soldiers, Iraqi civilians, and detainees
- Staffed the Emergency Medical Treatment area for 325th Combat Support Hospital at Camp Speicher, providing care for combat casualties
- Awarded five Army Commendation Medals, four National Defense Service Medals, two Iraq Campaign Medals, a Global War on Terrorism Medal, and two Army Achievement Medals

Honors and Awards:

1971 – Alpha Omega Alpha
1985 – National Farm Medicine Center Service Recognition Award
1990 – BP America Innovation Award
1991 – BP Chairman's Award for Achievement in Health, Safety, and Environmental Care
2001 – American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine Award of Leadership Recognition

Publications/Presentations:

Authored over 40 publications, including a major medical textbook, and delivered over 130 presentations on topics including sick building syndrome, pulmonary function testing, hospital employee health, asbestosis, bioterrorism, groundwater contamination, Agent Orange, multiple chemical sensitivity, and farm health. Conducted research on the health effect of man-made mineral fibers, agricultural lung disease, formaldehyde, and torpedo fuel.

Community Service:

Served his community of Bay Village, Ohio as a Boy Scout leader, baseball coach, team physician, and advocate/mentor for troubled or incarcerated young people

Inducted:

Member of The Harvey Alumni Association
Distinguished Graduates
June 5, 2008