

Starting the Conversation, Ending the Stigma

proudly presents an evening for Tweens/Teens and their Parents

LGBTQ+: Inclusion and Acceptance

A Panel Discussion Featuring Representatives from PFLAG Long Beach

Please join us as we gather to learn more about the LGBTQ+ experience, gender identity and sexuality. Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG) is a non-profit organization founded in 1972 whose mission is to offer support for families and friends as well as people who are LGBTQ+ ; to provide education about the unique issues facing people who are LGBTQ+; and to organize campaigns to change attitudes in support of people who are LGBTQ+. This evening we hope to encourage open communication and dialogue with the goal of strengthening our whole community through understanding and acceptance.

Starting the Conversation, Ending the Stigma is part of the L.A. Jewish Teen Initiative's Focus on Teen Wellness, co-funded by the Jewish Federation of Greater Los Angeles and the Jim Joseph Foundation with seed funding provided by the Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles.

Through this grant, Congregation Ner Tamid, Temple Beth El, Temple Menorah, Temple Shalom of the South Bay, and Congregation Tikvat Jacob will present programs and workshops designed to support and educate teens and parents about issues of mental health and wellness. There will be eight programs in total, spanning the 2017-2018 calendar year.

For this generation...and generations to come.
