Review will occur each day until eligibility has been regained.

When ineligible the student remains a member of the club or team, but certain restrictions apply:

1. For activities, the student will not be able to attend meetings or planned trips or events until effort to improve is shown in all deficient courses.
2. For athletics, the student may continue to practice with the team, but will not be allowed to play in any game (or be in uniform) until effort to improve is shown in all deficient courses.
