

THE BPL STUDENT ENTREPRENEURSHIP SHOWCASE AT SXSW EDU

Are you a budding entrepreneur who is looking to share your emerging business on a national stage? We want you to enter this competition for a chance to showcase the amazing ideas that sprout within learning environments where students have the agency to pursue their own interests and passions.

Students who are interested in participating should submit a two minute video pitching your business idea and why you think you should be selected to attend the annual SXSW EDU Conference in Austin next March. Video submissions should be sent to Chris Jackson, BPL's Chief Communications Officer, at chris@bigpicturelearning, no later than Friday, December 15.
