Criminal Attorney, Jenaro Welsh, entered St. Pius in 1955 in 3rd grade.

Deacon Jim Szotek entered our school in 1955 as a 2nd grader and Teresa Gallardo began working here in 1960 and continued to carry many hats for over 40 years.

At left. Ben Brooks, first full Time PE Teacher at ST. Pius. He has 2 grandchildren enrolled here. Julia, his daughter poses with him.

“It is the sincere wish of those who have served our school that God may continue to prosper the work of His servants, and that all the children who have walked and will walk the halls of St. Pius may find much success in this life and eternal happiness in the next.”

Taken from a Letter from Sister Mary Clement
Sister of Divine Providence and Former Principal
