

SCOTT BROWN

1975 Graduate of Thomas W. Harvey High School

- Student Body Vice-President, Harbinger Assistant Editor and Editor, Anvil Senior Editor, Member of Key Club, Quill and Scroll, Leaders Forum, Spanish Club, and High School Sports Reporter for the Painesville Telegraph.

1979 B.A. Liberal Arts/Personnel, Ohio University, Athens, Ohio

1987 Graduate Certificate, WUJS Institute, Arad, Israel

1989 M.A. Management, Webster University, Saint Louis, Missouri

Career Service:

- Attended a Jewish overnight camp as a child which became the basis of his future career
- 1979 – 1982 - Served as the Director of Camp Wise, Overnight Summer Camp, and Youth Worker at Jewish Community Center of Cleveland, Ohio
- 1982 - 1985 - Served as the Director of Camp Sabra, Overnight Summer Camp at St. Louis Jewish Community Center with 500 campers, 150 staff members, and 1000 acres of property
- 1989 – 1996 - Served as Associate Executive Director of the Jewish Community Center of Northern Virginia where he helped build a new facility, hired and trained the staff, and developed the program.
- 1997 – 2003 - Served as the director of Hillel, the Foundation for Jewish Campus Life at the University of Maryland. This is one of the largest Jewish campus organizations in the world with over 6000 Jewish students. He helped build a new facility and establish an award-winning program.
- 2003 - Serving now as the Executive Vice-President for Hillel, the Foundation for Jewish Campus Life International Center in Washington D.C.

Community Service:

- Served on the community board Bread for the City, an organization serving the poor in Washington D.C.
- Served as President of the George Mason University Hillel
- Honored with the Human Resources Leadership Awards of Greater Washington Business Journal and Finalist in Mentoring and Ethics
- Honored with the Hillel Exemplar of Excellence
- Honored with the Fairfax County Public Schools Human Relations Award
- Served the Big Brothers Program in Athens, Ohio
- Serving now as an officer and board member at the Jewish Community Center in Northern Virginia

“Our brother has always been a role model for us because of his many accomplishments. I am sure he has also influenced others along his journey, inspiring them to better themselves and serve their communities. We hope that his successes will be a message to other young adults who are considered religious or ethnic minorities at Harvey High School; that you can accomplish so much with hard work and determination, as Scott continues to prove.”

Debbie Fordyee and Deena Charnofsky

Inducted:
Member of The Harvey Alumni Association
Distinguished Graduates
May 28, 2011