

A-3 Schools December Newsletter

K-5 CORNER

A-3 Schools has a variety of ways to socialize. In the picture to the left, we have a student displaying a group Science Activity that was done during a weekly class connect with his teacher and classmates. The picture to the right shows one of our many in person meetups that are done every other week.

*Reminder: Don't forget the learning period is coming to an end 12-10-16. If you have not done so yet, please be sure to send a work sample to your student/s teacher!

6TH-12TH GRADE CORNER

Community Service

The mission of A-3 schools is to create future leaders passionate about making a positive contribution to their local and global communities in the Arts and sciences.

Congrats to our wonderful A-3 students that have been meeting expectations, and beyond, and have been making positive changes in the global community. To the left we have Lara who was recently crowned National Miss Jr. Teen! She also won two other national titles: National Spokesmodel; for performing a speech she had written about the importance of kindness. National Casual Wear Model; for having the best walk and performing the best modelling routine.

On top of that she won 5 awards:

Scholarship Achievement; for her 4.7 GPA and only taking Honors and AP courses.

Outstanding Leadership Award; for her 111 hours of community service in the past 4 months.

Most Appearances and Public Relations Correspondent Award; for her volunteering as Miss Golden State at 20 events. The Go Getter Award; for entering 10 optional competitions and winning 8 of those. Best Personal Introduction; because she had the most genuine and enthusiastic introduction. This month she earned 3 new national crowns and sashes, 5 awards and she still found time to login and complete her courses! Kuddos Lara for all of your hard work, you are an inspiration to us all!

To the right, Andrew worked in a storehouse for a food pantry for Community Service Hours. We appreciate all of your hard work, and are so proud of all of you that push to succeed.

WINTER BREAK 12-24-16 TO 1-2-17
REPORT CARDS WILL BE EMAILED NEAR THE END OF JANUARY

Please note: Students will still be able to login during this time to work on course work if they want to catch up, or get ahead, however the staff will be out of office during winter break. K-5 will need to login directly from the unit and lesson number from the class rather than from the weekly calendar, as the calendar will say "vacation. " Please direct any questions in regards to this matter to your students mentor teacher.

It is optional to login during winter break, but strongly advised if your student is behind schedule.

Happy Holidays from A-3 to your family, and Happy Learning!
