

Dean Thomas is the founding partner of Flatiron Strategies, a firm that provides executive management of partnership initiatives to drive new revenue and market share opportunities for private sector and government clients. Mr. Thomas has also worked as with Consulting Engagements providing leadership for partner and client initiatives to deliver production innovation. He brings over 14 years of financial experience in both the private and public sector to the BBL Board.