

Ardmore City Schools "Spotlight"

An Update from Superintendent Kim Holland

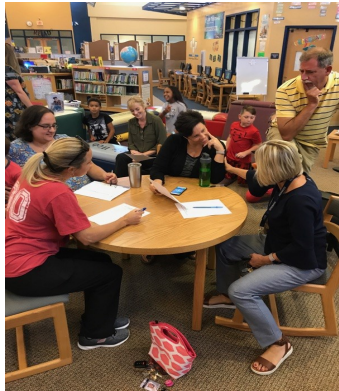

ONE TEAM. ONE MISSION.

Edition 6

September 22, 2017

It's Homecoming!!!!

ACS Brings Back the Time-Honored Tradition—a Homecoming Parade!

Charles Evans Elementary is having a Safe & Healthy School Committee meeting. Did you know that all of our schools conduct these meetings?

SNEAK—PEEK!!! Performing Arts Center

You are invited to stop by the Administration Center at 611 Veterans Blvd on Tuesday, September 26 for a "sneak-peek" at the proposed performing arts center. Superintendent Kim Holland will be available in the lobby from 2-4 p.m. to show you the architectural renderings and answer questions.

ACS Teacher of the Year, Kim Beard, attended the Oklahoma Teacher of the Year ceremony. Here she is with the 2018 OK Teacher of the Year, Donna Gradel from Broken Arrow. Thank you Mrs. Beard for representing Ardmore City Schools.

Here are couple of young ladies who are pretty excited about the official kick-off of the book fair at Charles Evans.

It's DOT Day at Charles Evans!

Captain Paul White of the Ardmore Police Department continues with his work on Anti-Bullying with our students. On this day, he was visiting with a 5th grade class at Lincoln Elementary. Thank you Captain White.