We are delighted to welcome our dear friends, Dr. John and Claire Yzaguirre to our St. Pius V community for this special “Thriving Marriages” Couples talk! This talk kicks off a great marriage series that will have Dr. John coming back to give the Spanish talk on 5/20 so please mark your calendars and invite all your Spanish-speaking friends! If you have friends unable to make today, just check their speaking schedule for the next English talk coming up soon in Long Beach.

John and Claire are popular Catholic therapists and family life educators who have been helping couples & families build unity throughout churches in our Southern California dioceses and denominations for 30 years. They are the co-directors of their Irvine counseling practice and are the co-creators of their popular Thriving Marriages program that is teaching thousands of couples, just like you today, how to build a joyful, united and lasting marriage. Happily married for over 31 years, John and Claire have a grown son, Paul.

Many of you may know John & Claire from their annual talks at the LA Religious Education Congress or the SCRC or other conferences and church talks or through their books and CD’s on various marriage & family life topics. Today you’ll have a chance to purchase their useful resources to keep on growing your unity long after today. Marriage leaders – consider growing a Thriving Marriages fellowship here with them too!

We welcome John & Claire and are excited to learn an inspirational & practical way to build unity in our marriages and families!
