North Haledon 7th Grade Visits Manchester

Monday morning, May 23, 66 seventh graders from North Haledon High Mountain School visited Manchester Regional High School to experience a typical Manchester school day. They began at 9:00 a.m. in the library viewing the Welcome to Manchester video written and produced by Mr. Yob's TV/Video Production class. Newly installed NHS president, Steven Sole and outgoing NHS co-president, Amani Alqaralleh, each talked to the North Haledon students about why they chose Manchester and what students can expect to experience here. This was followed by a tour of eight active classrooms and the Falcons' Lounge. They ended their tour in the gymnasium where they attended an activities fair and were treated to lunch. According to the NHS student guides, the North Haledon students were very impressed.

Students and Staff Give Blood at MRHS

On May 18, over 80 people registered for the bi-annual blood drive. Over 60 pints of blood were donated. As the banks are extremely low, the drive was critical and greatly appreciated by the Community Blood Center. Thank you to all who signed up and participated. (Picture of senior Natalie Serrano)

Hippie Day

Yesterday was annual Hippie Day at Manchester Regional High School. This is the day when students in U.S. History II classes dress up like hippies. This is the time of the year when these students are studying the 1960's. Each student adopts a hippie name. They are required to have their picture taken and obtain approximately 15 signatures from teachers, staff and administrators. They are to explain to staff members their purpose or cause, such as their view on the Vietnam War, social justice, or music, etc.

BCSS Students Challenge Heights and Team Build

The BCSS program once again headed out for another therapeutic adventure trip. The class continued to work on their fear of heights and team building skills. Students participated in many team building and problem-solving activities as well as climbing over 30 feet high. All of Mrs. Edwards' students did a fantastic job and enjoyed these activities.

Making A Difference in North Haledon

On Thursday, May 19, Make A Difference Club visited with the North Haledon Golden Age Club. Everyone had a great time. Seniors taught our kids how to do some popular dances from their era, and the students taught them some dances from today.
