

Double-Entry Journal: Reading Response

As you read, notice your reactions to the text. Pause and record six of those reactions and explain your thoughts. Responses could be dis/agreement, questions, connections to your life, connections to other readings, predictions, etc.

Be clear about connecting your thinking to specifics from the text. Avoid merely summarizing the plot!

*If you are reading a Graphic Novel: how do images help tell the story? Consider color, style, and scale.
