

Who is the School Counselor?

The school counselor is a professional educator who addresses the needs of students comprehensively through the implementation of a developmental school counseling program. The school counselor's function includes creating, organizing, and managing comprehensive developmental guidance and counseling programs to meet student needs. The counselor promotes personal success by providing appropriate programs and services to enhance educational, social, emotional, personal, and career development across the lifespan.