Textbook List – 2016 – 2017 School Year

General Purchasing Instructions

Please be very careful that you are not purchasing the Teachers' Edition of any textbook. Generally a Teachers' Edition is indicated by the letters "TE" after the title or by the words "Wraparound Edition". Do not purchase these. Any Student with a Teacher's Edition of their textbook will have the book confiscated and not returned.

The active website links or suggested online sources are provided for convenience only. Textbooks may be purchased from a variety of websites. Wherever you choose to purchase your books from, be sure you have the correct edition and that it is a Student Edition.

The Used Book Sale Day is August 5, 2016 on campus. This is an opportunity to purchase used books from students who had the book last year.

NOTE: This year, the Pre-Calculus Math text, all Science texts and all Spanish texts are new. Do not purchase used copies from students who have taken the course. Buy these books online only.

If you are ordering from Pearson (Math and English) at <http://www.pearsonprivateschools.com>, you must enter the zip code of the school, which is 90670.

International Students:

Please order your books before you get to school in the United States. Have the books sent directly to yourself in your home country and bring them with you. Or, have them sent to the address of your home-stay family in the United States. Let them know that your books are coming to them.

Also, International Students who are assigned to be in the US History ELL course or the Religion ELL course will receive their book lists after arrival in the US.

If you have any questions, please contact the Dean of Curriculum and Instruction – email is the best way.
