

IWCS COMMUNITY MEETING

Addressing Future Needs of Schools

We invite the community to join Isle of Wight County Schools for a hands-on opportunity to learn about the transformation of our world and its implications for schools.

Participants will gain a high-level understanding of:

- How the outside influences of home and work have evolved over the past several decades
- What the implications are of these changes on today's schools
- How we should respond to ensure our students are successful in tomorrow's world
