Lesson Video Worksheet

The Great Depression Begins, 1929–1932

Lesson 1 What Caused the Great Depression?

What Caused the Great Depression?

Directions: Review the questions below and think about them as you watch the video. Take notes that answer these questions as the video plays.

1. What caused the Great Depression?

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________

2. Why was the distribution of wealth and income becoming increasingly unequal?

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________

3. What steps did President Hoover take to end the Depression?

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________