

Note:

- Students have the right to have access to a comprehensive school-counseling program; and to be treated with respect and dignity.
- Students have the right to know the extent his/her educational choices will impact future opportunities.
- Students and parents have the right to privacy. The Counselor-Student relationship will adhere to all laws, policies, and ethical standards pertaining to confidentiality in the school setting.
- Gabriellino High School Counselors follow the ASCA National Model.

STUDENT SERVICES

What Students & Parents Should Know

Students

Academic Development:

Study Skills, Time Management, Goal Setting

Class Scheduling

College & Career Guidance:

Admission, Financial Aid, Career Aptitude and Interest Profiler Assessments

Socio-Emotional Support:

Peer Relations, Stress or Anxiety, Conflict Resolution, Bullying, Grief Counseling, Depression, Other Crisis, Divorce, Other Concerns.

Reference:

Norman C. Gysbers, P. H. (2012). Developing and Managing Your School Guidance and Counseling Program (5th ed.). (Author, Ed.) Alexandria, VA: American Counseling Association.
American School Counselor Association. (2005). The ASCA National Model: A framework for school counseling programs (2nd ed.). Alexandria, VA: Author.

Parents

Parents are encouraged to call the Counseling Office and request a meeting to discuss academic, college planning, social, or personal concerns about your student. According to student needs, your student's School Counselor may provide you or arrange:

- Resource Information
- Parent/Teacher Conference
- Student Intervention - Group and/or Individual Counseling, Outside Referrals, Crisis Intervention

