

She. She wakes up every morning with a zest for life. She catches a glimpse of the moon and the sun and is grateful for her education. She wears her colors with pride. She travels from far away or close by to get the education she deserves. She arrives on campus; her heart swells and her eyes light up. She is home. Her safe place, her catalyst for the rest of her life. Her future and her present all in one. Every hope and every dream has been and will be created here. She's challenged and guided by the people who embody the spirit and love of the school. She smiles, she laughs, she learns, and she loves in a safe and nurturing environment.

She is you, she is me, she is all of us. She is the girl with a shy smile who has found her confidence. She is the one who champions her education. She is the inexperienced athlete that has worked hard to win the state championship. She is the intellectual who has challenged herself with new courses and theories. She is the star on stage who shines bright. She is the writer who brings her words to life. She is the artist who colors her world. She is the student who struggles to learn and tries her best. She is the proud alumna who fondly remembers. She is the sister in chapel praying. She is a friend to all. She is a Blue Wolf.

SHE is Smart. SHE is Resilient.

SHE is Happy. SHE is ICHS!

SHE has made ICHS home for over 100 years and SHE has grabbed every opportunity to learn and grow. Now, SHE needs YOU! The costs to educate a 21st century student far outreach the standard tuition and fees. It's our job to support her in her life goals and provide very opportunity for success. These opportunities come with a price tag. Through your support, SHE can become a strong and confident world citizen; positioned for greatness.

SHE is GRATEFUL.

SHE can do so much more because of YOU!

Your help, your support, and your gifts are what give her the foundation to be the SHE of tomorrow.
