

Brodi - A New Student's Perspective

All Saints has very genuine people and you can tell by how everyone makes friends with everyone. I learned that when my brother and I first came here to see if we wanted to go to school permanently here. When I first got to our school, we went to the library where I met Bree and Ava. Once we were done in the library, they showed me Mr. B's classroom where I saw that everyone was hanging out, talking, laughing and smiling with each other. We are very thoughtful people and you can tell by how welcoming we are to new and old people.

Everyone is welcome including you! I remember when it was my first day of school and I was very nervous but when I got into my classroom and said "hi" they told me their names and then I felt better. They also showed me around.
