During the school year, you will read and report on various genres of books. Your selection for each book should be one that you have not read before and may not include books made into films/movies. Books must be at least 175 pages in length unless you have received approval from me at least two weeks before the report is due. Please select books that interest and challenge you!

The schedule below lists the selected genres and due dates for each report. Due dates refer to the date all reading should be completed. Specific assignment information will be provided in class. Book report projects are varied. They are designed to let you creatively demonstrate comprehension and analytical skills. Please note: Due dates and/or projects are subject to change.

September
(Sandwich Plot Elements)
Genre: Realistic Fiction or Mystery
Reading Due Date: Wednesday, September 20

The book report project will begin in class on Wednesday, September 20, to be completed at home by Wednesday, September 27. Bring your book to class on September 20.

November
(Comic Strip)
Genre: Science Fiction or Fantasy
Reading Due Date: Wednesday, November 15

The book report project will begin in class on Wednesday, November 15, to be completed at home by Tuesday, November 21. Bring your book to class on November 15.

January
(3-D Figure)
Genre: Biography or Autobiography
Page limit can be 75+ pages
Reading Due Date: Wednesday, January 24

The book report project will begin in class on Wednesday, January 24, to be completed at home or in class by Wednesday, January 31. Bring your book to class on January 24.

April
(Reading packet and Greek vase project)
Genre: Greek Myths and Legends
Book and stories will be provided to you
Due Date: Wednesday, April 11

The book and reading packet will be provided to the students in March. The reading packet is due on Wednesday, April 11 and will be done entirely at home. The accompanying Greek vase project will be done in class.

May
(Book Review)
Genre: Nonfiction (not biography/autobiography)
Page limit can be 75+ pages
Reading Due Date: Wednesday, May 16

The book report project will begin in class on Wednesday, May 16, to be completed at home by Wednesday, May 23. Bring your book to class on May 16.